

Home Care Provider Launches in Overland Park

BrightStar of Overland Park opened in February 2010. BrightStar provides medical and non-medical in-home care for aging seniors who are unable to make a move into a long-term care facility, patients who are recovering from surgery or illness including children, and new mothers just home from the hospital with a baby.